The Secretariat of the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) presents its compliments to the IAEA's Member States and has the honour to draw their attention to the IAEA's intention to hold a Workshop for Diplomats on Nuclear Law on Monday, 23 October 2017, from 10:00 to 17:00, at its Headquarters in Vienna, Austria, specifically in Meeting Room M2 of the Vienna International Centre (VIC).

The purpose of the workshop is to provide diplomats, notably from Permanent Missions of Member States, with a broad understanding of all aspects of nuclear law. To this end, presentations on the key international legal instruments relating to nuclear safety, nuclear security, and safeguards and non-proliferation, as well as to civil liability for nuclear damage, will be delivered. In addition, diplomats will be provided with an overview of the IAEA's legislative assistance programme.

The workshop will be held in English.

Member States are invited to designate one or more diplomats who may be interested in participating in the workshop in the light of the objectives and topics outlined above.

Designations should be submitted through the established official channels not later than 18 October 2017 for the attention of the workshop organizer, Ms Christine Donald, Office of Legal Affairs, IAEA, Vienna International Centre, PO Box 100, 1400 Vienna, Austria (Tel.: +43 1 2600 21265; Email: C.E.Donald@iaea.org). The full names and complete contact details of designated diplomats should be provided using the attached Participation Form.

The Secretariat of the International Atomic Energy Agency avails itself of this opportunity to assure the IAEA's Member States of its highest consideration.
